Executive Director's Notes

As I reflect on 2025, I am proud of a year defined by growth, connection, and meaningful service. Our activities highlight the essential role public libraries play in strengthening information literacy, advancing inclusion, bridging the digital divide, supporting early literacy, and promoting lifelong learning. Unfortunately, the Ohio House of Representatives and Senate voted to remove the Public Library Fund from permanent law and reduced state funding for libraries. Doing so, without reducing the tax burden on residents, created challenges in a year where we had more than 550,000 library visits, and patrons borrowed more than three million items.

We provided digital and in-person learning to help patrons navigate information and technology. A robust calendar of events offered opportunities to explore new interests, develop skills, and connect with others. Technology classes, ESOL groups, GED testing, and an expanded storytime schedule supported patrons in employment, education, and personal goals. These efforts reinforce the library's role as a center for curiosity, creativity, and growth; supporting a successful community.

MCDL increased accessibility across our locations with expanded sensory-friendly features. Our partnership with Dolly Parton's Imagination Library continued to place free books in the hands of thousands of children countywide. Ongoing staff training and Dementia Friendly Community efforts strengthened our ability to serve all residents with dignity.

The achievements of 2025 reflect our dedicated volunteers, partners, staff, and community. We remain committed to meeting evolving needs while staying grounded in our mission to improve quality of life in the communities we serve. I look forward to continuing this important work in the year ahead.
