Let's Pretend Play!

By the age of two, kids begin to engage in imaginative play. Pretend play fosters a child's sense of curiosity and creativity, plus it encourages language development and life skills. Spark pretend play by:

- Offering a prop box filled with a variety of dress-up clothes, kitchen utensils, blankets and pieces of material, old phones, empty boxes, blocks, toy cars, dolls, stuffed animals, and a mirror.
- Play along by following their lead and building on their ideas. Playing birthday party? Use a block as the cake, sing the Happy Birthday song and pretend to blow out candles, then cut and eat the cake.
- Practice and explore new situations that might be hard or scary like starting a new school, going to the doctor, or to a sleepover.
- More pretend play ideas:
Host a tea party with stuffed animals and dolls.
Go on a camping trip. Visit Grandma. Ride a bus.
Go shopping. Cook a meal. Plant a garden. Work at the Post Office. Play superheroes. Be a veterinarian.
Act like animals in the zoo. Voyage by airplane.

Song

I'm a Little Teapot

I'm a little teapot, short and stout

Here is my handle

(one hand on hip)

Here is my spout

(other arm out straight)

When I get all steamed up

Hear me shout

Tip me over and pour me out!

(lean over toward spout)

I'm a clever teapot, yes it's true

Here let me show you

What I can do

I can change my handle

And my spout

(switch arm positions)

Just tip me over and pour me out!

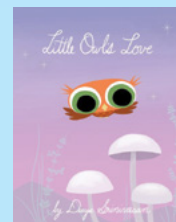

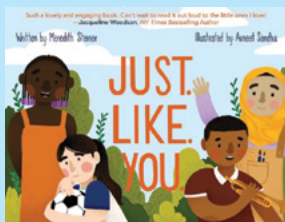

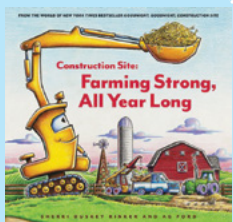

(lean over toward spout)
